

Do not support the broadcast industry's push for the "broadcast flag." It is through the media, and increasingly through the broadcast media that citizens are able to acquire the information needed to maintain our democracy. Any assault on the ability of citizens to access media freely must be opposed.